

WORLD OF RADIO #1067, produced January 31, 2001 by Glenn Hauser

- *RFPI back on 7480, and 15049, longer hours? Also daytime 21815-USB
- *R. Amanecer Internacional, Dominican Republic reactivated
- *Venezuelan President's show relayed by Cuba found on two frequencies
- *FARC clandestine broadcasts from Colombia on FM spill over into Venezuela, causing concern, Onda Caribe Rebelde; see DXLD 1-013
- *RFI heard in Venezuela on 2 meters; could be 12th harmonic of 12 MHz
- *HCJB confirmed with higher power on 21 MHz; running open carrier
- *New 21 MHz site: <http://www.21MHz.com>
- *R. Interoceanica, Ecuador, reactivated on 60m
- *R. San Juan, de Sallique, Jaen, Peru varies on 4 MHz band
- *R. Nacional da Amazonia resumed on 6 MHz, relaying Rio
- *Africa Number One, Gabon, has started webcasting via France:
<http://www.comfm.com/live/radio/africa/playerw.html>
- *R. Lusofonia turns into US gospel relay in English
- *Swaziland stations bought by Brazilian cult
- *Baidoa, Somalia, station seized by rival militia group, moved
- *Aydid refurbishes V. of the People of the Somali Republic
- *R. Hargeisa has audio via website <http://www.radiosomaliland.com>
- *V. of the Worker-Communist Party of Iraq starting new broadcast on 9 MHz; see <http://www.wpiraq.org/english/>
- R. Bopeshawa, i.a. spellings, means Forward; see DXLD 1-012
[time omitted, 1500-1600 UT]
- *The media magazine you monitor with hour mind, WOR 1067. Address:
wghauser@hotmail.com or wghauser@yahoo.com or P O Box 1684, Enid
OK 73702 USA; fax 1-580-233-2946 attn Hauser; see our website
<http://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/> for text and audio
- *Thanks this week for financial support go to: Jim Wishner
- *R. Jordan hopes to resume 17 MHz, but 11 MHz has mailbag show
- *Israel's new English schedule includes new 7, 13 MHz frequencies
- *QSL from V. of Jammu and Kashmir Freedom Movement with schedule, goodies; Post Box 102, Muzzafarabad, Azad Kashmir, Pakistan
- *All India Radio Leh, Ladakh, heard on changed 60m frequency; see DXLD 1-012
- *Hams working emergency traffic after earthquake in India ask for clear frequencies; see DXLD 1-012
- *Thomcast selling high-power SW and MW transmitters to India
- *JJY, Japan's timesignal station to be decommissioned March 31
see timesignal websites: <http://www.iprimus.ca/~hepburnw/dx/time.htm>
and http://www.npl.co.uk/npl/ctm/time_trans.html
- *North Korea suspended SW broadcast of code matrix numbers for spies
- *Bob Padula publishes China Shortwave Guide, free on request from bobpadula@bigpond.com or small charge for hard copy
- *CNR-5 from China to Taiwan, SW schedule, mostly out of band
- *New English from China on 17 MHz, believed another Cuban relay test
- *R. Western Highlands, Papua New Guinea, is not inactive on 90m
- *R. Australia starts, then reduces relays via Saipan, Tinian

*New series on BBC WS start this week: Plain English; Health Matters;
The Story of Africa from Feb 9

*R. Sweden just started relay swap with Canada; at last audible in North American evenings on 31m; ahead of direct frequency

*RCI starting new service to South Asia via Holland

*SCTV, tremendous Canadian comedy series is back on NBC, replacing Later, original feed 0635 UT Tue-Fri [not 0535 as I said]

*WGSR, Florida, special MW DX test February 3

*WILM, Delaware, special MW DX test February 4

*Cybershortwave Live guest Feb 4 is John Figliozi on Winter SWL Fest
-- details via <http://www.n1dk.com>

*Sandy Ungar, Clinton appointee, not yet resigned as VOA Director; more languages to be cut this year; see DXLD 1-012

*WWFV new frequencies announced including 14 MHz band!

*19 MHz area might be used by US pirates

*Propagation outlook from Boulder Jan 30: flux range 150-175-155

*Standard disclaimer

*Glenn Hauser concluding World of Radio 1067 ###